

The HANOVER THEATRE
for the Performing Arts

Audition Notice for A Christmas Carol 2015

The Hanover Theatre will conduct auditions for its annual production of "A Christmas Carol" on Sunday, September 13th, 2015 from 12pm-8pm. We are seeking to cast the following roles:

Men:

Bob Cratchit	30-35	Humble and earnest
Young Ebenezer	20-25	Full of vigor but stubborn
Spirit of Christmas Present	35-55	Booming voice and boisterous personality
Ensemble roles	16-60

Women:

Laundress	30-45	Downtrodden and timid
Lucy	25-35	Guest at Fred & Millie's Christmas party – playful and saucy
Ensemble roles	16-60

Youth:

Peter Cratchit	10-12, male
Tiny Tim	5-7, male or female
Martha Cratchit	14-16, female
Belinda Cratchit	7-11, female
Ensemble	8-14, male or female

The theatre's president & CEO Troy Siebels will direct with choreography by Ilyse Robbins and music direction by Tim Evans. Rehearsals will begin November 27 and will run Tuesday through Friday 2pm-10pm, Saturday and Sunday 11am-7pm. Performances run December 18-27, including morning student matinees on December 18, 21, and 22. Auditioners should prepare a short song (holiday or traditional Broadway) and be prepared to read from the script; a reader and an accompanist will be provided. Sides are available by email prior to the audition, if desired, by contacting bethany@thehanovertheatre.org.

Please schedule an audition appointment in advance by contacting Bethany Strothers at bethany@thehanovertheatre.org or 508-471-1761. Please provide the following information:

For adult auditioners: Please include your name, Equity status, phone number, and preferred audition time.

For youth auditioners: Please include child's age, parent's name, parent's phone number, parent's email, and preferred audition time.

We will contact you with the nearest time available.