Volkswagen presents Warren Miller's *Line of Descent

WORCESTER, Mass. (August 15, 2017) Volkswagen presents Warren Miller's Line of Descent Friday, November 17 at The Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts. Tickets are now on sale to theatre members and go on sale to the public Tuesday, September 12 at 10 a.m.

For its 68th installment, Warren Miller Entertainment gives fans the opportunity to explore ski culture and follow ski icons Tommy Moe, Kalen Thorien, Collin Collins, Lexi duPont, Marcus Caston, Seth Wescott and more. Watch a new generation of skiers and riders travel the world and create familial bonds on and off the track.

Every fall, snow riders come together to cheer on the official kick off to winter, and this year is no different. Skiers are a family — one big tribe with roots spread deep in high mountain soil. Familial rites are passed down through generations. As the family grows, the traditions grow richer. From British Columbia to France, Montana to Colorado, Norway and New Zealand, new generations of skiers and riders are pushing their sport to new extremes and fusing their passions to chase winter by motorcycle, snowmobile, dogsled, splitboard or powsurfer.

Tickets to Volkswagen presents Warren Miller's Line of Descent start at $22. Discounts are available to members of The Hanover Theatre and groups of 10 or more. Tickets are available online at TheHanoverTheatre.org, by phone at 877.571.SHOW (7469) or at The Hanover Theatre box office located at 2 Southbridge Street in downtown Worcester.

About The Hanover Theatre

The Hanover Theatre continues to draw over 197,000 patrons annually with world-class performances and headlining acts including Broadway hits (“Les Misérables,” “Kinky Boots”), comedians (Dave Chappelle, Jay Leno, Jerry Seinfeld), musical acts (Neil Young, Aretha Franklin, John Legend, Tony Bennett) and everything in between (“A Christmas Carol,” Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre, Alton Brown, Dr. Neil deGrasse Tyson). POLLSTAR consistently ranks The Hanover Theatre as one of the Top Theatres in the World. After nine seasons, the award-winning, historic theatre continues to establish its place as a world-class performing arts venue, acting as a catalyst for the economic development of downtown Worcester. The Hanover Theatre’s recently acquired 551 Main Street houses new function space, offices, rental space for a restaurant on the ground floor and The Hanover Theatre Conservatory for the Performing Arts on the lower level.

Worcester Center for Performing Arts, a registered not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, owns and operates The Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts and Conservatory. All donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.
