Swinging 1940s musical revue to visit Worcester

WORCESTER, Mass. (February 6, 2018) Worcester will go back in time when In the Mood, a 1940s musical revue, returns to The Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts on Thursday, March 29 at 7 p.m. Tickets are now on sale to theatre members and will go on sale to the general public on Tuesday, February 13.

In the Mood transports the audience to a time when everyone was singing and dancing to the same kind of music. For over two hours, this big event entralls with its singers, period costumes, fine orchestral arrangements, dance routines and sheer American pizzazz!

Joined by the sensational String of Pearls Big Band Orchestra, the In the Mood singers and dancers will be the highlight of the season in a musically jam-packed performance choreographed by Broadway choreographer Alex Sanchez. Treasures such as “Swingin’ on a Star,” “Tuxedo Junction,” “Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy,” “Sing Sing Sing,” “Chattanooga Choo Choo,” “I’ll Be Seeing You,” “La Vie En Rose,” “Take the A Train” and “The Last Time I Saw Paris” are just a small part of a program that will leave audiences cheering.

Tickets to In the Mood start at $38. Discounts are available to members of The Hanover Theatre and groups of 10 or more. Tickets are available online at TheHanoverTheatre.org, by phone at 877.571.SHOW (7469) or at The Hanover Theatre box office located at 2 Southbridge Street in downtown Worcester.

About The Hanover Theatre

The Hanover Theatre continues to draw over 197,000 patrons annually with world-class performances and headlining acts including Broadway hits (“Les Misérables,” “Kinky Boots”), comedians (Dave Chappelle, Jay Leno, Jerry Seinfeld), musical acts (Neil Young, Aretha Franklin, John Legend, Tony Bennett) and everything in between (“A Christmas Carol,” Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre, Alton Brown, Dr. Neil deGrasse Tyson). POLLSTAR consistently ranks The Hanover Theatre as one of the Top Theatres in the World. After nine seasons, the award-winning, historic theatre continues to establish its place as a world-class performing arts venue, acting as a catalyst for the economic development of downtown Worcester. The Hanover Theatre’s recently acquired 551 Main Street houses new function space, offices, rental space for a restaurant on the ground floor and The Hanover Theatre Conservatory for the Performing Arts on the lower level.

Worcester Center for Performing Arts, a registered not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, owns and operates The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts. All donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.
