

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STOMP* to perform at The Hanover Theatre in Worcester

Worcester, Mass. (November 23, 2021)

Get ready to clap your hands and STOMP your feet on Sunday, January 16, 2022 at 6:30 PM, when this iconic percussion group returns to The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts!

Created by Steve McNicholas and Luke Cresswell, STOMP is a unique, one-of-a-kind show that incorporates music, dance, acrobatics, and theatrics into the performance. For over 30 years, this eight-member troupe has been using everything but conventional percussion instruments – matchboxes, wooden poles, brooms, garbage cans, Zippo lighters, hubcaps – to fill the stage with magnificent rhythms.

STOMP has been featured on several popular television shows, such as “Sesame Street”, “Reading Rainbow,” and “Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood,” as well as “It’s Always Sunny in Philadelphia” and “American Dad”. In 2012, they performed during the closing ceremony of the Summer Olympics in London.

“If you haven’t seen STOMP, GO! If you have seen it, take someone and share the pleasure,” says The Boston Globe.

Tickets are on sale now! Tickets are $32, $42, $52, and $62 depending on seat location. Contact the box office at 877.571.SHOW (7469) or visit TheHanoverTheatre.org for more information.
