David Sedaris Returns to The Hanover Theatre This Fall

Worcester, Mass. (July 20, 2021) Best-selling author and humorist David Sedaris returns to The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts main stage this September 27 at 7:30 p.m. for An Evening with David Sedaris, generously sponsored by FLEXcon. Tickets are on sale now!

Sedaris returns to the road following the release of his most deeply personal and darkly hilarious collection, “Calypso”, where Sedaris sets his formidable powers of observation toward middle age and mortality. His powers of observation have never been sharper, and his ability to shock readers into laughter unparalleled. Much of the comedy here is born out of that dizzying moment when your own body betrays you and you realize that the story of your life is made up more past than future. Sedaris's humor is autobiographical and self-deprecating and often concerns his family life, his middle-class upbringing, his Greek heritage, homosexuality, jobs, education, obsessive behaviors and his life in France and England.

Tickets to An Evening with David Sedaris are $48, $53 and $58 depending on seat location. Discounts are available for members and groups of 10 or more. Tickets are available online at TheHanoverTheatre.org, by phone at 877.571.SHOW (7469) or at The Hanover Theatre box office located at 2 Southbridge Street in downtown Worcester.
