

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Celebrate America, the band, as they return to The Hanover Theatre for a rocking performance!

Worcester, Mass. (February 10, 2022) The iconic multi-platinum-selling group America is returning to The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts. Founding members, Gerry Beckley and Dewey Bunnell, along with former band mate Dan Peek, met in high school in London in the late 1960s and quickly harmonized their way to the top of the charts on the strength of their signature song "A Horse With No Name." America became a global household name and paved the way with an impressive string of hits following the success of their first number one single. America will visit The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts on Saturday, June 4, 2022 at 8 PM. Tickets go on sale on February 15, 2022 at 10 AM and may be purchased at TheHanoverTheatre.org.

America has been on a roll lately, releasing several projects to commemorate their decades of showmanship together. In August of 2020, they released their ultimate 8-disc anniversary box set "Half Century," featuring their new song "Remembering" which is a harmony-rich soft rock track with sentimental soul-searching lyrics about the weight of a memory. Meanwhile, in November of the same year, they streamed their first concert special "America - Live at the London Palladium" at the iconic music venue known to host some of the greats, the London Palladium. The film is commercially available in both DVD and CD formats. They've also released a book entitled "America, the Band: An Authorized Biography," written by journalist Jude Warne. The book consists of original interviews with the band members as well as passages detailing the dynamic history of America, the band and the nation.

Tickets for America are $49, $59, $79 and $99 depending on seat location, with discounts available for groups of 10 or more.
