

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Hanover Theatre Repertory to Hold Professional and Community Auditions for 2022-2023 Season

Worcester, Mass. (June 17, 2022)

Having just announced its 2022-2023 lineup, The Hanover Theatre Repertory (THT Rep) moves on to casting Shakespeare's Macbeth, an all-female staged reading of Arthur Miller's The Crucible and a party-performance called The Marvelous Party.

Equity Principal Auditions (EPAs) for professional and professional-track actors will be held June 24 and 25, 2022. Click here for full details, including sign up.

On June 27, 2022, auditions will be held for Worc At Play, a no-cost actor training and performance program created by THT Rep's artistic director, Livy Scanlon. "The goal of Worc At Play is to cultivate local talent, to give folks the tools they need to perform alongside professionals, and to make that training available at no cost."

The first class of Worc At Play actor trainees studied with Scanlon for several months before appearing in ensemble roles in THT Rep's production of Julius Caesar, which performed last summer on the Worcester Common. The 2022 class of Worc At Play trainees will undergo an intensive class schedule with Scanlon in July and join the cast of Macbeth.

Worc At Play auditions are open to all residents of greater Worcester age 18+. All skill levels are welcome to audition. Click here for full details, including sign up.

About The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts

Since opening in 2008, The Hanover Theatre has entertained more than two million guests with Broadway musicals, comedy headliners, music, dance and more. POLLSTAR consistently ranks The Hanover Theatre as one of the top theatres in the world. The award-winning historic theatre continues to establish its place as a world-class center for the performing arts, a venue for local cultural and civic organizations and a catalyst for the revitalization of downtown Worcester. The Hanover Theatre's facilities at 551 Main Street house function spaces, offices and The Hanover Theatre Conservatory.

The Hanover Theatre Conservatory provides performance opportunities, classes, and individual instruction in theatre, dance and technical theatre and design to more than 500 young people and adults from across central Massachusetts each year. Established in 2016, the conservatory cultivates individual attention, ignites creativity and inspires confidence through arts education led by outstanding teaching artists. The state-of-the-art facility includes classrooms, rehearsal and teaching studios, and tech and costume labs for advanced education in stage craft and design. Students receive access to master classes with national touring artists and gain professional experience from performance opportunities with THT Rep and on The Hanover Theatre's world-class stage. THTC believes in access to arts education for all and provides financial aid for those in need. Many conservatory students have continued their pursuit of the arts at institutions such as Emerson College, Boston University, NYU, Boston Conservatory at Berklee, Berklee College of Music, Hofstra, Hartt School at the University of Hartford, Marymount Manhattan College, Syracuse University and more.

Worcester Center for Performing Arts, a registered not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, owns and operates The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts. All donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.
