Worcester, Mass. (2 June 2023)

Ethereal Films and Last Call Foundation invite you for a special film screening and expert panel of Burned: Protecting the Protectors at The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts on Sunday, June 11 at 6 PM. Tickets for this event are on sale now.

Burned: Protecting the Protectors tells the story of one person's arduous quest for truth about cancer among firefighters. Watch the documentary Burned: Protecting the Protectors, directed by Elijah Yetter-Bowman and executive produced by Mark Ruffalo, then stick around to engage with our star-studded panel to be part of this historic movement. In addition, there will be a Pre-event performance by The Worcester Fire Brigade Pipe and Drum Band.

"No sensible person would require first responders to knowingly expose themselves to toxic materials as a requirement to do their jobs, but that's exactly what has happened for decades," said director Elijah Yetter-Bowman. "Fire fighters need protective gear that will not poison them. With the IAFF leading the way, I believe we will get there rapidly."

All proceeds from this event will benefit the Last Call Foundation honoring Firefighter Michael Kennedy.
