FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

West Roxbury-based youth, Ash Quasney-Sandler to appear in 16th annual production of A Christmas Carol at The Hanover Theatre in Worcester!

Worcester, Mass. (November 15, 2023) - The classic Charles Dickens' masterpiece, A Christmas Carol, returns to The Hanover Theatre mainstage this December 16-23, generously sponsored by Assumption University.

Ash Quasney-Sandler is a 12-year-old at The Fayerweather Street School in Cambridge, MA. She was last seen onstage in Michael Bobbitt's world premiere production, Make Way for Ducklings at Wheelock Family Theatre. Since moving from Chicago to Boston, Ash has been very active in the theatre community performing with Weston Drama Workshop (Grease, Tuck Everlasting & The Lion King Jr.) and French Woods Festival of the Arts (Fancy Nancy). She looks forward to returning to New York City's Broadway Artists Alliance program in 2024. Her favorite Hanover Theatre experience so far was seeing the national tour of Mean Girls. When she's not on stage, Ash enjoys crochet, writing, dogs, and making sushi.

President and CEO of The Hanover Theatre, Troy Siebels directs New England's largest production of A Christmas Carol with timeless music, lavish costumes and spine-tingling special effects. The creative team includes music director/organist Timothy Evans, choreographer Ilyse Robbins, associate directors Steve Gagliastro* and Annie Kerins*, South Asian cultural consultant Alka Nayyar*, costume designer Gail Astrid Buckley, set designer Jim Kronzer, lighting designer Charlie Morrison, sound designer Nick Joyce and flying by On the Fly Productions. The stage management team includes Jane Siebels*, Melissa Daroff* and Abby Ray.

Be sure to get seated early to enjoy the pre-show concert featuring the Mighty Wurlitzer Organ, the largest and most versatile theatre pipe organ in New England, led by A Christmas Carol music director Timothy Evans.

About The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts

Since opening in 2008, The Hanover Theatre has entertained more than two million guests with Broadway musicals, comedy headliners, music, dance and more. POLLSTAR consistently ranks The Hanover Theatre as one of the top theatres in the world. The award-winning historic theatre continues to establish its place as a world-class center for the performing arts, a venue for local cultural and civic organizations and a catalyst for the revitalization of downtown Worcester. The Hanover Theatre's facilities at 551 Main Street house function spaces, offices and The Hanover Theatre Conservatory.

The Hanover Theatre Conservatory provides performance opportunities, classes, and individual instruction in theatre, dance and technical theatre and design to more than 500 young people and adults from across central Massachusetts each year. Established in 2016, the conservatory cultivates individual attention, ignites creativity and inspires confidence through arts education led by outstanding teaching artists. The state-of-the-art facility includes classrooms, rehearsal and teaching studios, and tech and costume labs for advanced education in stage craft and design. Students receive access to master classes with national touring artists and gain professional experience from performance opportunities with THT Rep and on The Hanover Theatre's world-class stage. THTC believes in access to arts education for all and provides financial aid for those in need. Many conservatory students have continued their pursuit of the arts at institutions such as Emerson College, Boston University, NYU, Boston Conservatory at Berklee, Berklee College of Music, Hofstra, Hartt School at the University of Hartford, Marymount Manhattan College, Syracuse University and more.

Worcester Center for Performing Arts, a registered not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, owns and operates The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts (THT) and, on behalf of the Worcester Cultural Coalition (WCC), manages Worcester's BrickBox Theater at the Jean McDonough Arts Center (JMAC).
