Worcester, Mass. (October 15, 2024) After a rousing patriotic musical revue in September, The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts welcomes back resident organist Dr. Jonathan Kleefield on the Mighty Wurlitzer for A Hollywood Musical Revue: Part Two on November 6 at 12 PM.

Tickets are on sale now!

This revue provides a golden opportunity to reminisce about vintage Hollywood glamour in the perfect setting, the historic Hanover Theatre. Highlights include nostalgic songs penned by Richard Rodgers of the famed Rodgers and Hammerstein writing team along with the iconic chart topper "As Time Goes By," arranged for posterity by Max Steiner for the Oscar® winning film "Casablanca" and more! Hollywood melodies fill the former movie theatre for an unforgettable afternoon of entertainment.

Tickets for A Hollywood Musical Revue: Part Two are only $10 for non-members. The Mighty Wurlitzer concerts are FREE for subscribers, current conservatory families, members and their guests. Contact the box office at 877.571.7469 for more information or visit TheHanoverTheatre.org. Seating is general admission. Run time is approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes.

Opportunities to hear the Mighty Wurlitzer Organ include the following:

The Mighty Wurlitzer, assembled and gifted to the theatre by Donald Phipps, is recognized as one of the cultural jewels of Worcester. Phipps, Kleefield and the Mighty Wurlitzer were recently highlighted on WGBH's, The Culture Show. As a board director of the Eastern Massachusetts Chapter of the American Theatre Organ Society, Phipps followed in the footsteps of our theatre's founders, with his vision of restoring a treasured piece of our heritage and culture.
