Worcester, Mass. (April 24, 2025) The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts is excited to welcome back the incredible sounds of Pink Martini October 10, 2025 at 8 PM.

Tickets are on sale now!

Pink Martini has sold well over 3 million albums worldwide. With a dozen musicians and songs in 25 languages, the renowned band now brings its vibrant, multilingual sound to concert stages across the globe, landing in Worcester this fall!

After Pink Martini made its European debut at the Cannes Film Festival in 1997 and its orchestral debut with the Oregon Symphony in 1998, the band went on to play with more than 50 orchestras around the world, including multiple engagements with the Los Angeles Philharmonic at the Hollywood Bowl, the Boston Pops, the National Symphony at the Kennedy Center, the San Francisco Symphony, the Cleveland Orchestra and the BBC Concert Orchestra at Royal Albert Hall in London. In 2014, Pink Martini was inducted into both the Hollywood Bowl Hall of Fame and the Oregon Music Hall of Fame. In 2024 the band celebrated its 30th anniversary.

According to founder, Thomas M. Lauderdale , "We're very much an American band, but we spend a lot of time abroad and therefore have the incredible diplomatic opportunity to represent a broader, more inclusive America… the America which remains the most heterogeneously populated country in the world… composed of people of every country, every language, every religion."

After 30 inspiring years of making music together, today they added to this milestone with the release of a new single, "Bella ciao," the title track of an upcoming EP. The song is a powerful reinterpretation of an iconic Italian folk song that became a symbol of anti-fascist resistance during WWII. Featuring long-time Pink Martini vocalist, Storm Large, "Bella ciao" is part of the band's current performance repertoire and has quickly become a crowd favorite at shows.

Tickets for Pink Martini range from $51 to $91 depending on seat location. Save on handling fees in person at The Hanover Theatre box office. For more information contact a customer service representative at 877.571.7469 or visit TheHanoverTheatre.org.
