Worcester, Mass. (April 30, 2025) Los Ángeles Azules en Vivo 2025 Tour will stop at The Hanover Theatre & Conservatory for the Performing Arts during their 16-show tour across the United States and Canada for an unforgettable night in Worcester, fueled by cumbia rhythms on Sunday, September 28, 2025, at 8 PM!

Tickets are on sale now!

With a top-notch production, this tour will take audiences through the band's greatest hits along with some brand-new musical surprises. From the West Coast to the East Coast and up through Canada, fans will get to experience cumbia at its finest.

"Each concert will be a unique celebration, a journey through our musical history and the power of cumbia. We can't wait to share these moments with all of you," said Los Ángeles Azules.

In addition to the tour, Los Ángeles Azules continue racking up hits. After the release of "Yo me lo busqué" featuring Thalía — which has already surpassed 12 million streams — the group presents "Una nada más," a romantic cumbia with a modern twist in collaboration with Kenia OS. The song, capturing the intensity of a forbidden love, was written by Juanjo Martín, Yoby Zúñiga, and Rodolfo Lugo, and produced by Jorge Mejía Avante.

Before their highly anticipated United States and Canada tour, the band will bring their unmistakable cumbia sound to some of the biggest festivals in Latin America, including Lollapalooza Argentina, Festival Cumbia Sónico in Paraguay, and a special show in Corrientes, Argentina.

💃🕺 Cumbia continues to dominate the world, and Los Ángeles Azules en Vivo 2025 is the perfect opportunity to experience their music in all its glory!

Tickets for Los Ángeles Azules en Vivo 2025 range from $41.50 to $111.50 depending on seat location. Please contact the box office at 877.571.7469 or visit TheHanoverTheatre.org for more information.

Discounts are available for groups of 10 or more. To learn more about group rates call 508.471.1689 or email groupsales@thehanovertheatre.org.

About Los Ángeles Azules

Hailing from Iztapalapa, Los Ángeles Azules are globally recognized as the top ambassadors of cumbia. They've taken their music to world-renowned stages and festivals, such as Vive Latino and Coachella — being the first-ever cumbia group to perform at the latter in 2017. They also made history by joining YouTube's Billion Views Club, with two of their videos surpassing one billion views: "Nunca es suficiente" ft. Natalia Lafourcade and "Mis sentimientos" featuring Ximena Sariñana.

Over the last five years, the group has earned numerous awards and nominations:

• Billboard Lifetime Achievement Award (2023): Presented during the 2023 Billboard Latin Music Awards, honoring their career and contribution to Latin music.

• Hispanic Heritage Award (2024): Received in Washington D.C. in September 2024, highlighting their influence and legacy within the Hispanic community.

• Latin Grammy® Nomination (2024): Their album "Se Agradece" was nominated for Best Cumbia/Vallenato Album at the 25th Annual Latin Grammy® Awards in November 2024.

• Premio Lo Nuestro Nomination (2025): Nominated for Song of the Year at the February 2025 ceremony.

With over 17 million monthly listeners, Los Ángeles Azules rank among Spotify's top 500 most-streamed artists globally. They've brought their music to major cities across Mexico, Argentina, Colombia, the U.S., and beyond — solidifying their place as one of the most influential groups in Latin music.
