Worcester, Mass. (July 24, 2025) The Hanover Theatre and Conservatory for the Performing Arts announces the classic Charles Dickens' masterpiece, A Christmas Carol, will return to the main stage with an all-new production December 17-28.

Tickets are on sale now!

Adapted by Main Stage Artistic Director, Troy Siebels, The Hanover Theatre's 18th annual production of A Christmas Carol promises to be the highlight of the season. Award-winning set designer, Kelly James Tighe (Big League Productions) brings the show to new heights with fresh scenery creating the perfect playground for state-of-the art projections and innovative lighting design by Charlie Morrison (Grinch, Madison Square Garden). New York based, John Little (Cabaret, Roundabout Theatre Company), reprises the epic role of Ebenezer Scrooge noted to be “simply marvelous as the bitter old cheapskate” (METRMag).

Featuring original music composed by Worcester’s own Steve Gagliastro (“Spirited”) and choreography by Ilyse Robbins (Speakeasy Stage Co.), this festive holiday favorite is accompanied by the Mighty Wurlitzer for A Christmas Carol that is timeless, nostalgic, and one-of-a-kind.

Each performance includes a pre-show concert featuring the largest and most versatile theatre pipe organ in New England, led by accomplished organist Sean Redrow.

The full cast announcement is anticipated for early October.

Tickets for this holiday classic range from $56 to $86 depending on seat location. Discounts are available for subscribers. For more information, please visit TheHanoverTheatre.org or contact the box office at 877.571.7469.
